PREFACE

Love that emotion that urge insipid without the relish of madness. Lust love those desires that bring out our animal. Lust love two sides of the same emotion. To desire. To love. To lust with hungers unholy. To scourge bite scratch in the frenzy of insatiable unassuagable passion. To mutilate to kill our love in the paroxysm of desire. To ravish our love in death. Oh that sublime that divine that urge to devour to feed to hunger for our loves flesh. To merge to absorb to entomb our love in ourselves. Oh that heavenly madness human to animal lost in the intoxication drunk in the desire of our love To desire love lust in hungers delirium. To desire love lust in hungers unholy.
Mourning in the morning
I cry out loud
Blot out the sun blot it black
Black out the sun turn it back
Encase me in nights velvety shroud
In fold upon fold of darkly night
Shut out the suns ghastly light
Pale passionless at me with a cold stare
My love in the gloom with out a care
"How art thou now"
Eyelash dead on a dead white cheek
Tears dried on a face so meek
Milky-like lurid white
Ashen white fish-belly-like
Eyes dull glare with the glitter of death
Jet-like pearls like her lustrous black curls
Glassy beads luster black shimmering seeds
As her soul floods forth as she bleeds
Her pores pours forth a luscious breath
Lush scent heaven sent
Juicy fresh succulent
Oh my love but that I could devour thee if I could Lick round and suck thy blood gorged hood
Thy lips puffy swollen bloody drips
Scarlet red besmeared in thy menstrual blood
Sisters each to thy mouths sweet folds
Pouting smirking pulsing but oh so cold
"How art thou now"
Blot out the sun blot it black
Turn my sorrows back
Blot out the sun blot it black
Black out the sun turn it back
Give me a piece of peace
Oh my love come back
Ah the sun has turned to black
And the bat black night has grown
I languish here all alone
Midst nights black pall
Nights envelope enveloping like Hades hot hell
Thy eyes doth stare with a vapid pall
"How art thou now"
On they red bed of eiderdown
The night moves with a breeze
Trembling birds shiver and stir the dancing leaves
The mouse is ripped by the owl
O’er the floors soft pad spiders feet doth pad
A scream cry a moan
The bat sucks it prey
I groan for thee and pray
Lying languid on thy bed
In deaths embrace
Thy fallen lash on thy pallid face
Naked cooling o'er satin sheets yellow spread
Pillows silky black fluffy billows
Oh divine sublime
Thy beauty in death
Quickens my breath
Candles flicker shadows quiver
Reds blacks light and shade
Encase thy form
An angel divinely made
Causes passions in me to storm
My blood doth flow at this beauteous Caravaggio
Hot larva pulses in my veins
The melody of hell in them dwells
In the lurid light red half light
The shuddering roar of the sea
Doth in me seethe
The yearning in my veins
Burns like hates eyes for thee
I know the anguish and the pain
The snake as its prey doth flee
My heart my love beats with infinite desire
Thy face doth pale like a faded fire
Thy face doth pale white waning life
Thy tears on eyes like fire to wood feed my breath and swells my blood
My pulse sings out poisonous melody
At thy mouth that venomous flower
A coal hole burnt in some red tapestry
"How art thou now"
Lolling languid on thy bed death-like spread shroud encased in the black hair of thy head
Lilies wilt blood spilt
Lines red trace webs o'er thy quilt
Look at me let me see
Life ebb from thee
Look at me let me see
Life flows in me
Laying o'er thee I feed my soul on thee
Lick thee with my rose-like tongue
Lids to lips thy eyelids with my mouth I kiss
Suck they neck with a snake like hiss
Stretch thy throat pallid white like some slaughtered goat
That I may nibble with my teeth thy cold veins sheath
That I may dab those tender lips with lips
Oh that poisonous-petaled mouth
Oh pale love
"How art thou now"
My sweet crushed dove
My nerves quiver and convulse
My blood dances sings and doth pulse
Teeth pinch fingers clinch
Lips tear lips
Caresses flay
Oh such delight such bliss
My mouth reddens at thy mouth with hot kiss
Thy perfume stings me thrills me
To suck thy feet
Press my neck with thy lily white feet
"How art thou now"
Night rises quite and pale
No sun in the room but the fires amber glare
The fire flares and doth roar
Fiery sparks fireflies sputter across the floor
The spider chews its fly
The moth to the fire flies
Sputters groans and sighs
Flickering light spatter across the blood red bed
Shadows dance bats wings prance
O'er ebony walls
Black arabesqued shawls
From crimson canopies falls
Like blood red tears
Dripping in the night
That tears the light
Red amber like soft and bright
Reflecting refracting
Shimmering glimmering
In thy cold eyes
A fly cries
A moth dies
My love stares
Her eyes mirroring the fires glare
"How art thou now"
My loves eyes drip blood-like tears
Strange pangs strike pang as quavering notes strike in my throat
Semitones of pleasure oh blissful moans
My loves eyes sparkle with her tears
Strange pound my soul her tears have bound
My loves eyes languid with her tears
Her eyes full upon mine glow and stare
Her eyes full upon mine glow and glare
Her eyes full upon mine scorch my mind
Her face full of death and sad sound
Her hair full of death lay around
Her bed full of blood unassuaged desires
Her lips full red waning fires
Lips upon lips eyes upon eyes
"How art thou now"
My kisses serpent hiss across her hair
Her eyes full upon mine eyes to eyes
Enchant smile bewitch beguile
Her eyes full upon mine darkly spells
In deathly sleep her prey I tell
She reaches out and compels
Clutches me of me devours with passions fires hot desires
Lurid thoughts lewd thoughts hot from demonic hells
Strange desires veins upon veins I long to divide
Curtains red velvety spread
Curled and furled swirled and churled
Wind through the room blood red gloom
Shadows candle light danced a thousand lights around her bed sparkling bright
Liquid light crystal bright candle light
A thousand eyes flickering to my sighs
Lilies white violets black like night
Littered around decaying on the ground
Rose petals dropped into blood pools plopped
Plop plop ploppity plop beat to the quite sound of the night
Plop plop ploppity plop beat to the sighs of the night
Spiders roaches black broaches
Scurried around to their prey hurried
Plop plop ploppity plop
Blood pounded in my ears
Plop plop ploppity plop
Beat my heart it would not quell
Plop plop ploppity plop
Beat my heart my blest heart I can tell
Ah my love sweet nymph from hell
"How art thou now"
The beating sounds ploppity plop beats in my mind would not stop
Ah my love
Plop plop ploppity plop
Oh my love
Plop plop ploppity plop
Staring glaring
Would that I could melt into thee
Devour thee drink thee up thy passions sea
Running my tongue o'er thy milky breasts
Down thy mouth with out no breath
Crushing crushing our chests to chests
Dizzy light headed my love bedded
Tingling limbs in her mouth my tongue swims
Lashing teeth frantic kisses to her breasts belly thighs rocking pelvis oh how I sigh
Teeth to teeth brutal kiss
Lips soft stabbing kiss
Ohhhhhhhhh Ahhhhhhhhh bliss
The widow black eats its mate
The mantis green googled eyes reflecting light its mate ate
Lick suck those dove white feet
Plop plop ploppity plop
Suckling tits
Ploppity plop
Turgid pips
Plop plop ploppy plop
Tongue into belly button snake-like slips
Swirls round down to the black curls on her mound
Lick laps those blood red flaps
Rubies bright red light bee-like studded in those labia' tight
"How art thou now"
Tongue slithers slavers up that crimson slit
Turns around up down
In out round about that jeweled hole
Flickity flick o'er that pink hoods clit
Flickity flick o'er that pink hoods slit
Munch munch on that mushy bowl
That gaping wound that does not heal
That gaping wound silky soft to my feel
The soul of her blood into my soul doth flood
The music of the roses doth clash and fall
Resound through my mind and the red dark hall
Plop plop ploppity plop
My pulses beat
Shadows float o'er her tiny feet
My mind spins begins to real
Ear hums foreheads thrums
Swirling twirling
Warm and cuddly my body feels
Chocolatey smooth
Like her wet sticky grove
I am cumming my sweet
My heart for thou doth beat
I tremble from head to feet
O'er thou the bed this hour
Thou and I devour
Oh my sweet languid cold on our bed
My heart doth beat with a hot warm breath
Thou art a flower blossom dark black and red
Deathly white with the stare of death
"How art thou now"
The night room doth spin as I swoon
Ecstasy's tunes surge through my gloom
The night is black
Quite thou stares back
The spider bloated hangs in eaves
The mantis bloated lolls on leaves
Plop plop plopity plop
"How art thou now"
Ploppity plop
The night folds in curtains to the wind
Plop plop ploppity plop
Candles flicker
Fires glitter
The room like a tomb
Still as her blood doth spill
A hush red blush as I cum with a rush
My fluids spray
Up out and away
Into a liquids shimmering spray
I cum my pulse beats
The blood hot and my body heats
The fires of lust o'er thou expire
I crush as I clasp thou and gush
Spray a spray flower-like with my orgasmic rush
Shimmering beads liquid seeds
Fire-like petals rain down float around
Liquid light glistening bright
Plop plop ploppity plop
“How art thou now”
Lust dissipates expires
Satiated desires
Warm cuddly fires
I encase thee tight
Still quite the night
Enfolds us incase us in its deathly vice
Ploppity plop
The cricket chirps rats on blood slurp
Plop plop ploppy plop
The winds through halls run
Around curtains candle flames hum
“How art thou now”
I look into thy eyes
Memories flash by
In thy deathly stare
In that deathly stare
In that sea of black I see
Thee smiling at me
Reflecting me back
Laughing gay
Bathed in the moons ray
Thy eyes glitter
As roses violets the room litter
Perfumes sweet and indolent
Thy fannies musk so insolent
Wafts through rooms
As o'er us peacock plumes
Sway to our breaths our lovers tunes
On thy hair frangipani and myrrh
Sweet opium's of delight
Of my veins rouse and stir
Thy dark eyes windows of thy soul
Spurt forth heavenly flames
As o'er my chest and down thy thighs cascades thy black dark mane
“How art thou now”
Nightingales sing
Heavenly tunes around our ears ring
O'er bed we languidly lay blithe and gay
As from 'Evil flowers' I sing this lay
"I love a pale beauty languid and forlorn
Red pouting lips, a rose midst snow freshly born
An ashen white beauty-set with limpid black pools
Darkly shining fiery lurid jet pearls
A pallid pale beauty framed in luxuriant black hair
And tendrils falling wildly with frangipani on the air"
“How art thou now”
Aromas sweet waft from thy breast
A subtle air mingling with thy hair
Gently my hands caress
Thy fannies sweet entrance
O’er thy lips they doth prance
With our eyes we glance
Oh my love thou doth entrance
With thy head held back
The bliss we kiss
Intoxicated with a poetic aphrodisiac
We suck our breaths merge our souls
The room spins lights around our heads revolve
Thou art I  I art thou
Two beings into one the moon merged with the sun
Times stops eternity in a kiss oh oh the bliss
“How art thou now”
Oh my love my sweet sweet dove
In the moons rays thou shine like the sun
Chandeliers flames light up thy eyes
Thy locks full of insolence
Thy eyes full of innocence
Oh bliss to languorous climes of cloves and frankincense
Forests aromatic our souls do go
The room with love and life aglow
We swoon
Under the moon
In our dark red womb
Desires untold
We float within the room
In our arms to heaven we hold
Birds sing colors scents musical sound doth resound
Our hearts beat and blood pound
Boils our passion a raging storm
Unassuaged desires our caress inspires
Lanterns flicker passions kindle into flames
The moonbeams dance as we dance loves games
"How art thou now"
Kisses as hot as ice is not
Gay waltz in loves embrace
Our veins shiver like a viol strings quiver
Sighs float high
Musical flowers
Evaporate like sun showers
Love doves croon
The nightingale sings to its mate
Wattle golden bright floats through out the room
Swans black float in loves embrace on an emerald lake
Loves tears fall from limpid eyes
“How art thou now”
The night is filled with loves sighs
Arms cast round in out legs bound
Prey to prey eyes devouring
Prey to prey eyes fireing
Our teeth mark out passions prize
Heated groins grind out loves tune
We bite scratch writhe and clutch under the rays of the moon
Oh my beloved tiger
Give me thy breasts
That I may suck from its turgid nipples
Loves sweet juice
Drink up thy soul
And into me dissolve
Oh my beloved tiger
I hunger for the sound of thy cries
Animal-like drink my blood to the sounds of my sighs
I crave the frenzy of thy desires
O’er thighs round nipples run thy nails-
Razor blades cold like ice but oh so nice-
O’er neck eyelids white draw thy teeth
Across nipples like a sharp cold knife
O’er my lips clasp thy lips like a moist hot vice
In the night animal-like bite
Send through my brain the rapture of pain
Bite my lips suck my breath
Claw scratch and on my back blood do fleck
With nails into buttocks teeth into neck
Oh my beloved send me to passions death
That orgasmic gush
Superlative rush
Swallow me up melt into me
Loves flames burn me bright
Kiss me lick me clasp me tight
Cats to cats mating fight
Widow with its mate in loves throws clasps and bites
"How art thou now"
Writhing o'er bed sliding
Groaning sighing
Chests to chests face to feet
That I could drink thee up and of thee eat
Devour thee consume and thou in me entomb
Thy eyes and loving tears
Feeds my need my teeth tears
Mouth fastens onto eyelid teeth onto vein
Neck stretched out I bite around
Oh my love thy sighs of pain
My ears hum and groin pound
My loves begins to cum
Violent thrash
In her orgasmic delight she becomes gorgon-like
Spasms might convulsed in the half light
Ohhhhhhh my love I cum with such delight
Thy eyes animal-like ahhhhhhhh what fright
Burning bright mesmerize my sight
"How art thou now"
Listen hear here she cums
Thy jugular pounds with thy orgasmic sounds
My blood doth boil
We shudder quiver convulse palpitate
Erotic rage delirium paroxysm
Hellish fires burning sparks ambrosial desires
Ohhhhhhhhh God she cums I cum we cum
Into they pulsing vein I bite
Blood spurts shoots squirts
A rose red flame to a prodigious height
Thy blood into my mouth fills
O'er my lips it spills
Down neck o'er bed
O'er floor it drips hot and red
Web-like it doth spread
Enameled pools wash around stools
Circling around Jewell like shimmering it cools
To my mind sprout roses red
Lush growths succulent
Blossoming up round my head
Clutching in hot embrace mouth to mouth I catch her breath
Eyes to eyes I watch her unto death
Lips to lips she bites and our blood
Creamy smooth gooey hot and fluidly
Down our throats doth flood
Eyes to eyes I watch her life fly
Mouth to mouth I catch her last sigh
Oh my love in thy deaths throw
Thy beauty sublime divine
Pallid dark dark stare as drip drip drip thy life goes
"How art thou now"
The moon doth wane and morning dawns
Oh my love come back
That I can love thee evermore
Oh my love come back
That I can devour thee some more
"How art thou now"

"How art thou now"

Blot out the sun blot it black
Black out the sun turn it back

"How art thou now"

Oh fuck fucking hell

"How art thou now"

Not to bad Doc I will tell
